

Congratulations to 8th Grade Student, Elaine Dekker, Recipient of Litchfield County Superintendents' Award for Kellogg School, 2017

What Elaine's teachers are saying about Elaine:

Elaine Dekker is a highly motivated, enthusiastic contributor, who demonstrates leadership in her classes. She is an engaged learner, willing to share her ideas, encourage her peers, and model exemplary work. An active member of the Student Council, Elaine helps generate new ideas and supports all students at Kellogg School. Elaine displays her leadership qualities in the athletics that she participates in: soccer, basketball, softball and several travel teams. Elaine is a well-rounded, contributing member of the Lee H. Kellogg community.

Well done, Elaine! We are proud of you!
